(1345 East, just north of the Dodo Restaurant), Sugarhouse

EVENING'S PARTICIPANTS:

Indra Neelameggham – Hindu; treasurer of the Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable

Maysa Kergaye – Muslim; member of the Islamic Speakers Bureau

Dr. Carmela Javellana-Hirano, M.D. – Buddhist; recently ordained as a Buddhist priest in Japan

Kate Holbrook – LDS; specialist in women's history at LDS Church History Library who holds a doctorate in American religious history from Boston University

Virginia Hecker – Jewish; member of Congregation Kol Ami

Christine Myers-Tegeder – Christian; associate pastor of Salt Lake's First Presbyterian Church

Wendy Stovall – Unificationist; co-pastor of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, and secretary of the Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable

SUMMARY:

- Join host Wendy Stovall as she welcomes seven Salt Lake-area women of faith for an informal discussion about their spiritual journeys.
- Wendy will also relate her own spiritual journey, which led her from Zimbabwe to Salt Lake, where she co-pastors the FFWPU (Unification Church). In addition to her church responsibilities, she is an active board member of the Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable.
- The evening will offer the opportunity to fellowship and enjoy refreshments and a performance by a youth string quartet.
- Parking is free on the lot behind the church; enter driveway at the south end of the church

The Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization of over 220 members working to promote love, harmony and increased understanding among persons of all faith traditions, cultures and belief systems everywhere. The Interfaith Roundtable regularly supports free community programs and events throughout the year with the express purpose of facilitating interfaith dialogue; visit interfaithroundtable.org for more information.
