

SALT LAKE INTERFAITH ROUNDTABLE

P.O. Box 112016 Salt Lake City, UT 84147-2016

www.interfaithroundtable.org

 Like us at facebook.com/InterfaithRoundtable

 InterfaithSLIR

MEDIA ADVISORY

To arrange interviews with David Sharp or any of the groups or individuals listed, please contact Colleen M. Scott, Roundtable Media Chair, media@interfaithroundtable.org

Coming Sunday, February 23:

INTERFAITH MUSICAL TRIBUTE, 6 P.M., SALT LAKE TABERNACLE

The Roundtable's annual evening of prayer, music and dance, directed by David Sharp, Musical Tribute Chair

Program of scheduled performers and participants as of February 14:

1. Organ prelude: Tabernacle organist Bonnie Goodliffe
2. Call to prayer: Representative, Pacifica Institute of Utah
3. Native American blessing: Roundtable Board Member Lacey Harris, member, Northern Ute and Northern Paiute tribes
4. Hindu blessing: Roundtable Board Member Indra Neelameggham
5. Welcome to the Tabernacle: Official of the LDS Church; to be named
6. Sikh Temple of Utah: Gurbani Kirtan (chanting), conducted by Head Priest Gurmeet Singh Garib
7. South Valley Unitarian Church: Choir, string quartet and piano; Mary Lou Prince, Director
8. Greek Orthodox Church: Youth folk dancers
9. Leopard in the Temple: Mystic Jewish chanting group with instrumentals; Alan Fogel and Karen Nielsen-Anson, Directors.
10. Khemera Cambodian Dance Troupe: Temple dance (Robaim Apsara); Chanda Chuon, Director
11. University of Utah LDS Institute of Religion Concert Choir: Hal Romrell, Director
12. Arabic prayer: Imam Muhammed Mehtar, Islamic Society of Greater Salt Lake
13. Holladay United Church of Christ: Acoustic folk quartet
14. Sri Ganesha Hindu Temple: Children's Choir and dancers.
15. Cathedral Coro Hispano (from Cathedral of the Madeleine): Gregory Glenn, Director
16. "Let there be Peace of Earth": Audience and choirs sing along
17. Closing prayer: Jan Saeed, Bahá'í Faith
18. Organ postlude: Bonnie Goodliffe