SALT LAKE INTERFAITH ROUNDTABLE ISSUES STATEMENT REGARDING SUNDAY'S SHOOTINGS AT WISCONSIN SIKH TEMPLE

(August 7, 2012) Salt Lake City – In response to the incident last Sunday morning at the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin in Oak Creek, Salt Lake Interfaith Roundtable Board Chair Alan Bachman has issued the following statement:

“This tragic incident is a cause of great concern. Our Sikh Friends are about equality and love of all people. Perhaps few people in the U.S. know about the Sikh faith. Part of our role as the Interfaith Roundtable, is to help promote a better understanding of the various faiths and belief systems. By people getting involved with interfaith activities, prejudices, misconceptions and stereotypes will disappear and the world will be a better place.”
