“A Jewish Poet Encounters World Religion”

By

Jacqueline Osherow,
Distinguished Professor of English and Creative Writing at the University of Utah

Sunday, February 28, 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Kol Ami Synagogue, 2425 Heritage Way, Salt Lake City

Congregant Jackie Osherow, the author of seven collections of poetry, most recently Ultimatum from Paradise, is the recipient of numerous awards, prizes, and grants. Her poems have appeared in a wide range of journals and anthologies, including The Paris Review, The New Yorker, The Norton Anthology of Jewish-American Literature, and The Best American Poetry. Jackie will read from her latest series of poems in which she attempts to understand religion as a unifying influence which connects believers of different faiths to one another. Jackie will also share the influence of her own religion on her poetry.
